

Bite Me: Food That Looks Good Enough to Eat

The Signature Room at the 95th's Chorizo Stuffed Pork Chop

What's in it? Pork chop is stuffed with chorizo and served with whipped potatoes, roasted corn relish and ancho sauce.

Suggested pairing: Goose Island Honkers

How much is it? $37.95

Executive Chef Rosalia Barron says: "The combination of the mild spice in the chorizo and ancho pepper, the freshness of the corn relish, and the tenderness of the pork create the perfect bite. The dish is an example of the global cuisine that can be found throughout the menu."

Source: <http://www.nbcchicago.com/entertainment/the-scene/Bite-Me-Food-That-Looks-Good-Enough-to-Eat-62601667.html#ixzz2RyrG1t2q>